Department of South Carolina &
Low Country Detachment #803

Welcome to the "Holy City" - beautiful Charleston, SC! Low Country Detachment #803 and the Department of South Carolina are excited to host you all for this year's Southeast Division Conference!

There is SO much to see and do here in Charleston, not to mention AMAZING places to eat! We hope that you will take advantage of a few of the great restaurants here in Charleston!

Our host hotel, the Hilton Garden Inn, has been amazing in working to ensure we have a fantastic weekend! We worked hard with them to get the best possible rate at $139 plus tax, including breakfast through Sunday morning! For those coming in Thursday evening, our host hotel is full, but there are a number of other local hotels very close by – we knew y'all loved Charleston, but whew!

We are excited to hold our welcome party on Friday, which just happens to be St. Patty's Day! You never know what shenanigans we have up our sleeve! For $25 your food will be included, we will have a cash bar and who knows, maybe even some green beer will be on hand!

Our Ladies' Auxiliary will be hosting a tea and paint social Saturday morning. I know many of the ladies in attendance had a great time last year at the tea and I know that SE Division President Lynn Cortright and the Holy City Unit are looking forward to continuing this new tradition!

Our Saturday banquet will wrap up the weekend and we are thrilled to have one of our own, Lt. Dan Hoffman, as our honored guest speaker. The banquet will be buffet style at $60 per person.

We hope to see many, many of you at our Division Conference and look forward to sharing a little of our Charleston Hospitality with you!

Semper Fi!
